

BOYCOTTING WORKS!

It has been a successful, historical strategy for impacting social change!

- The Montgomery Bus Boycott (1955) led to the Supreme Court ruling resulting in the desegregation of public buses and helped create the Civil Rights Act (1964).
- The United Farm Workers' Grape Boycott (1965-70) produced increased wages, health benefits and worker protections for farm workers.
- Campaigns in the U.S. for disinvestment in South Africa (1980's) put economic and political pressure on its apartheid regime which was eventually toppled.

LET'S BUILD SOMETHING BETTER TOGETHER!

- Must you have your product overnight? Give up Prime as well as regular ordering from Amazon.
- Buy directly from the company if you need a specialized item. Better yet, look for small, local businesses instead.
- Our power over our shopping habits is a mighty weapon to help build a just and equitable economy.
